

architecture+

Capital District Psychiatric Center Day Treatment Facility

Albany, New York

architecture+ designed this 13,000 square foot outpatient treatment facility for the New York State Office of Mental Health. The facility is designed to treat mentally ill with a team treatment model. The facility was created through the adaptive reuse of an existing furniture warehouse.