

River Triangle

Troy, New York

We restored and connected six 19th century commercial buildings to create 60,000 square feet of modern retail and office space. We designed new building systems and interior modifications to accommodate modern office space.

Renovations were executed in strict compliance with federal guidelines so that the project qualified for historic preservation tax credits.